

9th July 2016

That day I had to wake up at 4 in the morning, because I was going on a trip to Warsaw with my friend. I ate a sandwich for breakfast and then left my house at 4:30 a.m. I took a tram to get into the city centre where I was supposed to meet with my friend. When he already came we had to run on train station, because we didn't want to miss our train. At 5:43 a.m. we set off from Cracow to Warsaw. In the train it turned out that we do not have seats next to each other, so we had to sit in two different rows. I was sitting next to lady in the middle age, while my friend was sitting alone. When the train conductor came to check our tickets, he told us that I can change my seat and for the rest of the travel we could sit together. During our travel we could take free biscuits and one free drink. We decided to choose coffee, because it was really early in the morning. The journey passed quickly and comfortable. The train was really noiseless so we could sleep for some time. When we finally arrived to Warsaw we had to take a subway to get to the airport Okęcie. I was really excited because I have never been on airport like this before. When we get there we wanted to find observation deck, but the airport was really huge and we got lost up. Fortunately the customs service helped us find the way. At the observation deck I could observe many of airplanes. When I looked at my watch it was only about 10 am and I couldn't wait the rest of the day, because so many nice thing had happened to me before. Main goal of our trip was to see two planes. The first was the Boeing 787 Dreamliner which belongs to a Polish air lines and the second was a Boeing 777 which belongs to Emirates air lines, that are consider as one of the best lines in the world. I have been waiting until both planes landed nearly 3 hours, but it was worth it ! The roar of the engines was incredible. In the meantime we could see many other planes landing. On the airport board I noticed airplanes belongs to German chancellor and one belongs to prime Canada, but in my opinion plane belongs to President of Azerbaijan looked the best! Unfortunately I couldn't see Air Force One which belongs to President Barack Obama because he was on the other side of the air port. Watching how planes landed was somethnig special for me because in the future I would like to be air traffic controller. After a long wait when we finally saw the airplanes we decided to continue our trip. We went to The Warsaw Rising

Museum. Warsaw was really quiet and empty this day, because it was NATO summit. On the street we could meet more police officers than residents. They were really helpful and showed us the way to the museum. In the museum I could learn a lot about the history of the Warsaw Uprising. There are many souvenirs from these events e.g. original armbands of insurgents and the wreck of a German plane. Furthermore I saw there many horrible movies which shows how insurgents were murdered. I also watched the movie showing the ruins of Warsaw after the war. It was thrilling that people in my age had to fight for freedom. The good thing was that I saw many foreign tourists in the museum and everyone wanted to know something about history of Poland. When we left the museum we were really hungry and we decided to go back to the city centre. We went to Golden Terraces, where we ate burgers. I also bought myself a little souvenir which was a tiny figure of Palace of Culture. After visiting Golden Terraces we decided to take a ride by a new subway line, which was built for 2 years. Whole journey took us 10 minutes... It was so many difficulties with building it for only 10 minutes of ride. I think that Warsaw is a great place to live. What I liked the most was the skyscrapers. There is not so many of them in Cracow and in Warsaw you can see them everywhere. About 7 p.m. we went to Central Station and really tired we have been waiting for a train to Cracow for about 1,5 hour. I was back home at 11 p.m. and I was tired but really happy because I experienced a lot this day. I took a shower and went straight to my bed where I fell asleep really quickly.

10th August 2016

I woke up in the morning and I was really tired. That was a bad sign before a match which I was going to play today. My mom made a breakfast for me and then I packed my stuff which I needed for match. When I was ready I left my apartment and my dad told me that I have to drive a car. I had a drive licence for about 3 months but I worked it out very well. When I arrived I met friends from my team. They were waiting for the beginning of the game. We were really nervous because it was a match with one of the best team and we knew that it was going to be hard. We started to change our clothes and we listened to the music to relax ourselves. Before the game started our coach told us how to play and who is going to play in the first squad. I was supposed to play as a right defender. Match started at 11 a.m. In the stands there were several people, mostly our friends. Unfortunately we lost a goal in the first 10 minutes of the game. After another 15 minutes we made a big mistake and we lost second goal. We were losing 2-0. The situation was very tense. We didn't lose any more goals before a break. During a break our coach told us what we did wrong and what we should do to win this game. We came back on playing field with a new power and we were full of hope to win. By the minute we played better and better. Finally we scored a goal at 60 minutes. New strenght joined in us and soon we scored another goal. It was a draw. It was close to the end of the match and the referee counted three minutes. In 92 minutes of the game we had a free kick. This was the last move of the match. Our goalkeeper decided that he is going to perform a free kick. He scored perfectly and we won the match ! The referee ended the game after our goal and we could celebrate. In the locker room delicious surprise was waiting for us. It was a pizza ! We were tired and hungry and when i felt the smell of pizza I was really happy. I ate 3 pieces of it and it was the best pizza in my life. I think I liked the taste of pizza so much because we won this important match. When I took a shower and changed my clothes we were sitting in the locker room for a long time and we were talking about the game. We were really excited. That day was very fantastic.

20th June 2016

Couple day ago me and my friends decided that we would like to go to see Charity Basketball Match in Tauron Arena Kraków. The match was organized by Marcin Gortat. He invited many famous persons, who played in his team. The opponent of his team was Polish army, which was supported by NBA players. Near to my house was a place where I could buy a ticket for this event. At school my friends gave me the money so I could buy a ticket for them too. When I ended my lessons I went to buy a tickets. Unfortunately when I got there it turned out that they didn't sell a tickets for this event. I came back home and asked my dad to buy a tickets for us on the internet. He agreed and on next day I had printed tickets. Finally on 20th of June we all met on tram stop near to Tauron Kraków Arena. When I was leaving my house it was really hot and the sky was blue. I dressed in t-shirt and shorts. I never thought it was going to rain. We had to wait for one of our friend about a half of hour. It became cold and dark. Thunderstorm was coming and our friend still didn't come. Finally after 30 minutes he appeared and we could go to Tauron Kraków Arena. We thought that we will flee before the storm but unfortunately it came when we were just next to the entrance. It was raining and the thunders were very loud. We came to Arena wet but fortunately our tickets were in my friend backpack so they were fine. Firstly we went to the toilet to dry our clothes. It was hard because dryers are attached to the walls but we did it and after 20 minutes we could take our seats. Before the match started we listened to loud, energetic music which stirred the emotions. Gortat team entered the pitch on military vehicles. When all members of this team was presented we have been waiting for Polish army team. It turned out that they had even better entrance than their opponents. They descended on ropes from the top of Arena. It was incredible. Finally the game began. Army team won the first part of the game. During the break we could watch cheerleaders and there was a competitions for children. Main prize in competitions was a trip on the NBA match in the United States but Marcin Gortat decided that he will take all children which took part in competitions. It was a great gesture. Second part of the game was aligned. There were many spectacular action but also a lot of fun in the stands. In result Polish army team won the match. I was pleased with this result because they lost in last year.
