Morning

When I woke up, I knew that it will be a bad day. I was going to move into new house. I wanted to start a new chapter in my life. I packed up my things and I went to train station. My friend Damian supposed to give me my train ticket but He forgot about me. I came to the station too late and I didn't have enough time to buy a new ticket.

I got on a train. Inside it appeared really old. The walls were made with woods. Apart from that, red and gold backcloth was hanging on windows. I was the only passenger. I was going to buy a ticket form the guard. As they say it never rains but it pours. I had forgot my notecase and I had to travel without a ticket.

On the next station some old women got on a train. She was wearing a black out of date capote , sapphire trousers and red shoes. She had a pointy nose. She looked like a witch. The women sat in front of me. She told me that her name is Lagherta and she ask me where I was going. I told her the truth that I was going to Podbajkały because I was going to move into a new house. She gave me a heads-up about haunted house. "You must steer away from there. If you sleep in this house, you will have to barricade the door and all windows ". I didn't knew what was wrong with this women. I still think that she was crazy. Then Lagherta talked about her granddaughter but I didn't listen to her anymore. When she left train, finally I could go to sleep.

When I arrived to place ,it had began to rain. My new house was located in a forest. The house was over 200 years old and it was 3 storied. This building was build with stone. Inside there are 40 rooms. It looked like a palace. Behind house ther was a lake. In front of the palace there was a very big graden with sculptures. I bought him for 40% value. This building needed a renovation. My new house could collapse at any moment.

I was tired so I decided to go to sleep. I opened the front door and I saw a long corridor. It was very dark inside. I went to a first room and I saw a living room with covered furniture. I went upstairs and I found a bedroom. I didn't unpack my suitcase and I didn't even change clothes, I simply layed down on a bed and I fell asleep.

Night

I was woken up by a wind. There was a big draught. I had to close all windows and doors. When I closed the last window on a first floor, I heard steps on a second floor. I got really scared. Slowly I went back to my bedroom but I couldn't fall asleep. I was sitting on bed the entire night. I thought that I am alone but then I heard somebody. I was dreading to check who was there.

Morning

Today the weather was a little bit better. I wanted to to clean up and explore the house. I found many furnitures, sculptures and mirrors in the house, but nothing interesting. I hoped to find some antiques, because I bought this house fully equipped, and I wanted to sell some of the furniture.

The salesman disappointed me.

18 p. m.

I went to town because I had to buy food. I asked few people about my house. Some people told me that the building is haunted. Some told me that during the II World War nazis killed many Jews from town in that house and dumped bodies into a lake. Some told me about a monster which at day sleeps as a statue but at night he walks into the house. I went to shop and I bought a lot of food and a couple gallons of milk. I had to stock up in eatables.

Night

I barricaded the door and windows in my bedroom and I went to sleep. Unfortunately, I was hearing scratching at the door and loud shriek. Sometimes I heard steps. Once more I couldn't fall asleep.

I removed the barricades and I went to kitchen on the first floor. There I noticed that the window was open. Yesterday I forgot to close it. The sound that I've heard at night it was a draught, not a shriek. It was just a wind but still, I didn't sleep for two nights. I had to go to bed.

Morning

Today I went to my garden. On first day I saw a lot of sculptures and statues. Part of them showed the silhouette of the devil. Sometimes they were smiling or blue. They were often irritated but they were always dancing. Some sculptures showed angels. They were disgusted but they were always hurt. In the centre I found a statue of a monster made with stone. It was in the shape of Minotaur. He looked peaceful. He had got bread and he was smiling. I was going to change this decor.

Noon

I called to my friend Fred. He is a renovation specialist. Tomorrow my house will be as good as new. I was very excited. I went to a nearby town. I wanted to have the time of one's life.

Cockshut

In one of the bars some people did the drug thing. Unfortunately, police broke the party and arrested everyone in bar. This night I've spent in arrest. I dreamt about the monster from my garden. He went to my bedroom and grabbed my leg. He dragged me to the lake and he threw me inside. Then I woke up.

Morning

I found a trail of a human nail in my bedroom. I thought that I had got hallucination. Today Fred came to my house. He looked awful. He had got periorbital dark circles and he was wearing ragged t-shirt and ripped jeans. He looked like a corpse. When he saw this nail, he said that it has at least 200 years old. It was a big relief.

Cockshut

Fred spent all day in my house. He evaluated how much time his work is going to take. Fred told me that the entire house had to be rebuilt and he had put a ban on reside in my home. This night I was going to sleep in my house but next night I had to go to hotel in a nearby town. I didn't want to risk my live.

Night

At the end of the day I was tired. I ordered a pizza but while I was waiting for deliverer I simply fell asleep. I dreamt again about Minotaure from my garden. He was furious with me and Fred. He had got a plan. He was going to blow up the reservoir with natural gas in basement. The reservoir was connected to central heating. If he would realize this plan, he could destroy the whole house. I woke up when I heard smoke alarm. Immediately I called to fire department and I ran to my garden. It was really dark in there and I run into the Minotaur statue. He looked frighteningly in the moonlight. A few minutes later firefighters came to my house. They quenched a fire and took me to hospital. I had a lot of bruises and scratches but I was healthy. When I was in infirmary, police officer informed me that the cause of the fire was a lightning. Remainder night i spent in hotel in town

I thought that my dream was very strange. I was going to go to psychiatrist. I bought a train ticket to Cracow and I went to the doctor.

I came in to the office. The walls were painted blue. In the centre the psychiatrist was sitting on a big antique armchair. He was an old man with beard. I told him about my dream and what I had found in my house. He told me that I kept oneself to oneself for too long and I had got dementia precox and that I have to go to psychiatric hospital.

July 15th 2015

I was lying in my bed in psychiatric hospital when I heard someone knocking to the door. That wasn't feeding time so I was surprised. I opened the door and I saw a policeman. He told me that he has to arrest me for murder. I didn't know what was going on. I was afraid. In short they said that I murder deliverer pizza on June 28th 2015. They found his body nearby my home with a phone. I was the last person that he was talking with. I was only a suspect and policemen wanted to take me to a trial. They didn't listen to me and my explanation. That was a very brutal murder and they wanted to close the case. The body was repeatedly punctured on a horn. I called to my counsel and then they realised that they can't arrest me just like that.
